

SANS Mentor

Self Paced | Local Instruction | Live Interaction

Mentor instructor led group study sessions offers a multi-week delivery format that allows you time to digest and work with courseware and materials between sessions. Smaller class sizes give you the opportunity to delve into complex principles, collaborate and ask questions. Mentor courses are offered in local communities so you get live SANS training without having to be out of the office or away from your family for six days.

Features

- Convenient – class held in your local community
- Cost effective – reduced tuition fees, no travel expenses
- Small class sizes - hands on learning, collaborate with class and ask questions
- Self Paced - sip from the SANS firehose
- Multi-week delivery - digest and work with courseware and materials between sessions

Bring SANS training to your workplace. Contact us at mentor@sans.org